At PantherCorp our aim is to understand the issues; to ensure you get the best advice; to provide personal service at all times; and to get it right every time.

PantherCorp is a locally-based Australian company specialising in the formation of new Companies, Trusts and DIY Superannuation Funds. We also provide Corporate Registry Services maintaining company records together with company, business name and title searches and credit reports.

Our team's experience in the corporate services industry is extensive and broad ranging. We have just the right combination of people and expertise to deliver personal service and value to every client.

Why PantherCorp?

As a professional in the Accounting, Financial Advisory or Legal professions, keeping pace with the legislative changes affecting your clients' taxation and legal requirements is key to providing a dynamic service.

We will keep you across all of ASIC's changes affecting new company formations or corporate registry matters, ensuring the documents you receive are always up to date. Our in-house lawyers Trainor Legal will prepare your trusts and any other legal documentation required and will answer any query you have relating to the structure you need. Wherever possible, they will assist you with 'on the spot' advice, free of charge.

At PantherCorp we are committed to providing you with the best possible service without hidden charges or add-on costs. Quick turnaround and a strict attention to detail are the hallmarks of our service.

The PantherCorp Difference

Understanding the issues

There is no substitute for experience. Our staff can answer your ASIC queries and if we don't know the answer immediately, we'll find out for you – free of charge.

Getting the best advice

We provide practical advice you can rely on. Our staff will review your instructions carefully and if they identify any anomalies or believe any aspects have been overlooked they will be proactive and open with you.

Personal service

We are a people focused company. We believe in developing long term relationships and are always available to speak to you.

Getting it right every time

We are meticulous in our review and checking procedures and constantly look at ways to improve our services. Our in-house lawyers Trainor Legal are specialists in all facets of business law including structure setups, transactions, agreements and estate planning and will ensure you get the best, most accurate advice.
